Matthew 29:8-10

So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them [Mary Magdalene and the other Mary.] “Greetings,” he said. They came to him, clasped his feet and worshiped him. Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid. Go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me.”

John 20:14-26

At this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realise that it was Jesus. He asked her, “Woman, why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?” Thinking he was the gardener, she said, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him.” Jesus said to her, “Mary.” She turned toward him and cried out in Aramaic, “Rabboni!” (which means “Teacher”).

I Will Be With You

And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.

Matt 28:20

I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. John 14:18

For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them. Matt 18:20

I Will Give You Peace

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid John. 14:27

I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world. John 16:33

Peace be with you. John 20:19, 21, 26

“Father, I entrust my spirit into your hands!”

Luke 23:46

Luke 9:22 – “The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests and the teachers of the law, and he must be killed and on the third day be raised to life.”

Luke 9:44 – “Listen carefully to what I am about to tell you: The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men.”

Luke 18:31-32 – Jesus took the Twelve aside and told them, “We are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written by the prophets about the Son of Man will be fulfilled. He will be delivered over to the Gentiles. They will mock him, insult him and spit on him; they will flog him and kill him. On the third day he will rise again.”

Disciples meeting with our Resurrected Saviour and Lord

Luke 24:36-41a

As they were saying this, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and said, "Peace be with you." They were terrified and alarmed, and thought they were seeing a ghost. "Why are you so disturbed?" he said. "Why do these questionings come up in your hearts? Look at my hands and feet; it really is me, myself. Touch me and see! Ghosts don't have flesh and bones like you can see I have." With these words, he showed them his hands and feet. While they were still in disbelief and amazement from sheer joy...

Disciples meeting with our Resurrected Saviour and Lord

John 20:19-20,27

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the disciples were together, with the doors locked for fear of the Jewish leaders, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!" After he said this, he showed them his hands and side. The disciples were overjoyed when they saw the Lord.

Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here; see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe."

They drew near to the village where they were heading. Jesus gave the impression that he was going further, but they urged him strongly not to. “Stay with us,” they said. “It’s nearly evening; the day is almost gone.” And he went in to stay with them. As he was sitting at table with them he took the bread and gave thanks. He broke it and gave it to them. Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they recognised him; and he vanished from their sight.

Prayers of Jesus

Two of them were going to a village called Emmaus...As they were discussing, and arguing with each other, Jesus himself approached and walked with them...“You’re obviously having a very important discussion on your walk,” he said; “what’s it all about?” They stood still, a picture of gloom. Then one of them, Cleopas by name, answered him. “You must be the only person around Jerusalem,” he said, “who doesn’t know what’s been going on there these last few days.” “What things?” he asked.
